PERMISSION TO PUBLISH IMAGES

The Author must bear in mind that photos, illustrations or artworks may be subject to copyright and it may be necessary to obtain permission from the holder of the rights to reproduce the image (usually by the artist, photographer, editor or the Museum which holds the work).

The Coordination Committee of the Post Screen: International Festival of Art, New Media and Cybercultures requires the Author of the article to send a written document with the permission to reproduce photographs, images, illustrations, charts, and tables of authors, in order to comply with the rights of images about these works. If the Author of the article is also the author of the images, he/she should send a document indicating that he/she authorizes the publishing of those images in the Essay Book published by CIEBA-FBAUL and Edições Universitárias Lusófonas.

The Organizing Committee asks the Author to obtain permission for this purpose on all images inserted in the article. All costs related to each image permission shall be borne by the author.

It is suggested the following sample letter, that the Author can, or should, change according to each request.

Dear _____,

I am interested in using one (or several) photographs/illustrations of your work (or your publication) _____, to publish along with my article entitled _____. I would like to include these photographs/illustrations in the Essay Book of the Post Screen: International Festival of Art, New Media and Cybercultures, published by CIEBA-FBAUL and Edições Universitárias Lusófonas.

The photographs/illustrations that we would like to use are:
